Convocation at Carleton University

The Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as he enters and leaves each ceremony. (Marshal of Convocation H.H.J. Nesbitt has performed this function for all but one of the University's Convocations.) During the ceremony the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chair of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver-plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's coat of arms and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

Coat of Arms

The coat of arms was presented to the University by His Excellency The Right Honourable Ramon John Hnatyshyn on November 15, 1992 as part of Carleton's 50th anniversary celebrations. It is described in heraldic terms as follows: "Sable a maple leaf Gules irradiated and charged with an open book Argent; And for a Crest: on a wreath Argent Sable and Gules a Phoenix Gules quilled and beaked Or issuing from flames proper; And for a Motto: Ours the Task Eternal; And for Supporters: on a grassy mount on either side a raven Sable beaked and membered or armed Gules."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 82 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

The Diploma

The diploma the graduates receive at Convocation is the certificate of qualification which publishes the fact that the student has fulfilled all the requirements and completed the prescribed course of study for the degree. As the senior academic legislative body of the University, it is the Senate which has determined whether the requirements have been met. The signatures of both the Chancellor and the President of the University appear on the diploma: the Chancellor because of his role in conferring the degree, and the President who, as Chair of Senate, certifies that Senate has enacted the required motion to award the degree. The Seal of the University is affixed to the diploma as a mark of authentication.

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University results from a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's —are of the simple or Oxford shape. The bachelor's hood is made of black stuff; the master's and doctor's are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctor's, the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: architecture is cerise; arts is white; commerce is camel brown; computer science is royal blue; engineering is orange; industrial design is dark cardinal; journalism is white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; management studies is camel brown with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; music is venetian pink; public administration is peacock blue; science is golden yellow; social work is cream; and doctor of philosophy is purple.

The bachelor's gown, to be worn with the above hoods, is of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yoke behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The master's gown is of full style, made of black silk or rayon, with a full gathered yoke behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows. The doctoral gown is of the same style as the master's, but made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk.

The two shades of blue in the doctoral gown are those of the United Nations, and are meant to recognize the University's long-standing interest, from its earliest years, in international affairs and issues. The colours were chosen when the University awarded its first honorary degree, in 1954, to the second Secretary General of the United Nations, the late Dag Hammarskjöld. The tradition of awarding honorary degrees to Secretaries General of the United Nations has continued since that time.

The gown of the honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Science, Engineering or Architecture is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves. It is made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for the degrees granted by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree of Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree of Doctor of Literature; red for the degree of Doctor of Science; orange for the degree of Doctor of Engineering; and cerise for the degree of Doctor of Architecture.

Alumni Park

Weather permitting, today's Convocation ceremonies are being held outdoors in Alumni Park which was dedicated in 1992, at the initiative of the Carleton University Alumni Association, to commemorate the University's 50th anniversary. The arbour under which the Chancellor, the President and Vice-Chancellor, the Chair of the Board of Governors and the faculty are seated is a generous gift from the Association. It provides a permanent stage for Carleton's Convocation ceremonies and other events such as theatrical productions, concerts, and the like. Future plans for the Park include an enhancement of the existing fountain area with the construction of a plaza and landscaping to open up views to the Rideau River.

The Presiding Officer of Convocation is the Chancellor of the University, Arthur Kroeger, O.C., M.A., LL.D.

Accompanying him on the podium are Elizabeth Waddell, B.P.H.E., representing the Board of Governors, and Robin H. Farquhar, M.A., Ph.D., F.C.C.E.A., President and Vice-Chancellor.

Håkan A. Berggren, M.A., Ph.D., D.Litt.

His Excellency Håkan Berggren, Ambassador of Sweden, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the morning ceremony on Saturday, June 17, "in recognition of a distinguished career as a scholar and diplomat who has rendered signal service to the development of Canadian-Swedish academic cooperation as initiator of the Sweden-Canada Academic Foundation."

Håkan Berggren was born in Örebro, Sweden in 1936. He received a Master of Arts degree in 1958 and a Ph.D. in history in 1963 from Uppsala University. From 1962 to 1966 he was a Research Fellow and Lecturer in American history at Uppsala. In 1965 he was Assistant Visiting Professor and Research Fellow in the History Department at the University of Wisconsin.

Dr. Berggren's career as a diplomat began in 1966 when he was recruited by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Stockholm. From 1966 to 1968 he served as Chief of the North American Section in the Information Department. He was appointed Director of the Swedish Information Service in the United States in 1968 (an autonomous agency under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs) and served in that capacity until 1973. He was then seconded to the Ministry of Trade in Stockholm where he became Head of the National Board on Consumer Policies (1973-76) and Chair of the Planning Commission on the Government's Public Information Responsibilities During an Energy Crisis (1976-77). From 1977 to 1980, Dr. Berggren was Counsellor and Deputy Chief of Mission for the Embassy of Sweden in New Delhi. From 1980 to 1985 he served as Ambassador of Sweden to Singapore, and from 1985 to 1989 he was Permanent Under-Secretary for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Stockholm. He has been Ambassador of Sweden to Canada since 1989.

Dr. Berggren has been guest lecturer at numerous universities around the world including: the University of California at Berkeley; the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; the University of New Delhi; the National University of Singapore; McGill University; the University of British Columbia; York University; and Carleton University. Since 1982, he has been guest lecturer and program adviser on international relations and cultural conflicts for the Faculties of Engineering and Economics, Linköping University, Sweden. He was a member of the Board of the Centre for Pacific Studies at Stockholm University from 1985 to 1989.

Dr. Berggren initiated the establishment of the Sweden-Canada Academic Foundation (SCAF) in 1991. The SCAF is a consortium of four Swedish universities and four Canadian universities (Laval, Carleton, York, and British Columbia) which aims to support and promote the formation of research networks in areas of common interest to both Sweden and Canada.

Dr. Berggren is the author of five books as well as numerous articles, lectures, papers, reviews, and radio programs on North American affairs, Pacific relations, and on Swedish political development.

He received an honorary Doctor of Letters degree from York University in 1994.

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Celia Franca, C.C., O.Ont., D.C.L., D.Litt., LL.D.

Celia Franca, director, choreographer, dancer, narrator, and founder of the National Ballet of Canada, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Fine Arts, honoris causa, at the afternoon ceremony on Saturday, June 17, "in recognition of an outstanding contribution to cultural life in Canada as a dancer, choreographer, company director and arts administrator of considerable range and talent."

Celia Franca was born in London, England in June, 1921. She studied music and dancing at the Guildhall School of Music and ballet at the Royal Academy of Dancing in London, England. She performed there with various companies, among them the Ballet Rambert and Sadler's Wells Ballet. She also choreographed her first works in England. Miss Franca's artistic skills were noted by a group of Toronto ballet-lovers who, in 1950, wanted to establish a classical ballet company in Canada. She agreed to become founding Director of the National Ballet of Canada in 1951 and worked as its Artistic Director until 1974. From 1951 to 1959 she was a principal dancer with the National Ballet of Canada. In 1959, she co-founded the National Ballet School in Toronto.

As a dancer, Miss Franca originated many roles including the Queen in Hamlet (London, 1942); the Title Role in Lady from the Sea (Washington, 1955); and the Black Queen in Swan Lake (Toronto, 1967). Other roles she has danced include: Russian Ballerina in Gala Performance; Bride in The Mermaid; Queen of the Wilis in Giselle; and Carabosse in The Sleeping Beauty. Included in the roles Miss Franca has danced for television are: Pas de Deux in Suite of Airs (BBC, 1937); Lady Capulet in Romeo and Juliet (CBC, 1965); and Carabosse in The Sleeping Beauty (CBC, 1972).

Miss Franca has choreographed over a dozen ballets including: Midas (1939); Dance of Salomé (1949); Le Pommier (1952); and The Nutcracker (1964). She has also choreographed productions for the Canadian Opera Company and the Edmonton Opera Association. Ballets choreographed for television include: Dance of Salomé (BBC, 1949); Romeo and Juliet, which was awarded the Prix René Barthelmy in 1966; and The Sleeping Beauty, winner of a 1973 Emmy Award.

Miss Franca is the author of The National Ballet of Canada: A Celebration (1978) and assisted with the balletic terminology for the book, Beginners, please! (1953) by Kay Ambrose.

Miss Franca has served on numerous Boards including: the Canada Council (1982-1989); York University (1985-1988); Theatre Ballet of Canada (1980-1988); and she has served on the Arts Advisory Board of the Canada-Israel Cultural Foundation. She is currently Co-director of the School of Dance in Ottawa and is a patron of the Osteoporosis Society of Canada.

Miss Franca is the recipient of many honours and awards. She has received seven honorary Doctor of Laws degrees: from Assumption University in Windsor, Ontario (1959); Mount Allison University (1966); the University of Toronto (1974); Dalhousie University (1976); York University (1976); Trent University (1977); and McGill University (1986). She received an honorary Doctor of Civil Law degree from Bishop's University (1967) and an honorary Doctor of Letters degree from the University of Guelph (1976). Miss Franca received the Canada Council's Molson Award (1974), the Woman of the Year Award from the St. George's Society of Toronto (1987) and, in 1994, was the recipient of the Governor General's Award for Lifetime Achievement in the Performing Arts. This year she was awarded the Variety Club of Ontario Diamond Award.

Miss Franca was appointed an Officer of the Order of Canada in 1967 and promoted to Companion in 1985. She was awarded the Order of Ontario in 1987.

Saturday,
June 17, 2:00 p.m.

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Recipients of Degrees, Diplomas, and Certificates

Master of Arts

(Presented by Professor D.R.F. Taylor, Assistant Vice-President [International], representing the Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research)
